

“The world knows the image of the good Canadian, but what if there was a dark secret behind the national identity? This eye-opening and unflinching documentary, The Good Canadian, lifts the mask on the True North Strong and Free, one truth at a time.”¹

The Doctrine of Discovery (Papal Bulls 1452, 1455 and 1493) and The Indian Act, 1876 continue to impact Canadian Indigenous populations.

“The Good Canadian investigative documentary uncovers the systemic injustices faced by Indigenous people in Canada at a time of Reconciliation at the hands of the criminal justice system, the child welfare system, the education system, the health care system, through birth alerts and more.”²
